. . . AT THE NAVAL WAR COLLEGE

Annual International Law Conference, 28–30 June 2006. “Global Legal Challenges: Command of the Commons, Strategic Communications, and Natural Disasters,” a colloquium of international law scholars, practitioners, and students to examine legal standards applicable to pressing global challenges—the global commons, strategic communications, and natural disasters—will be hosted by the International Law Department of the Center for Naval Warfare Studies. All those attending the conference will be integral participants in this colloquium, and the Naval War College will publish the conference proceedings as a volume in its renowned International Law Study series. For agenda and registration information, visit www.nwc.navy.mil/ild.

Spring Intersessional. The Naval War College’s Spring 2006 Intersessional Conference was held 6–7 March, on the theme “Employing Strategic Communications in the Modern Operational Environment.” Panels addressed “The Nature of Strategic Communications,” “The Message and the Audience of Strategic Communications,” and “The Bearers of Strategic Communications.” Panelists included teaching and research faculty, supplemented by representatives from the Navy, Department of State, industry, and major universities. Readings are available on the College’s website, at www.nwc.navy.mil/pao/L1/Upcoming%20Events.htm (click on “intersessional conference”).

The Edward S. Miller Research Fellowship in Naval History. The Naval War College Foundation intends to award one grant of $1,000 to the researcher who has the greatest need and can make the optimum use of research materials for naval history located in the Naval War College’s Archives, Naval Historical Collection, Naval War College Museum, and Henry E. Eccles Library. (A guide to the College’s manuscript, archival, and oral history collections may be found on the Naval War College’s website: www.nwc.navy.mil/museum, under “naval history resources,” click on “Naval Historical Collection Publications.” Further information and copies of registers for specific collections are available online or on request from the Head, Naval Historical Collection, e-mail evelyn.cherpak@nwc.navy.mil.)

The recipient will be a research fellow in the Naval War College's Maritime History Department, which will provide administrative support during the research visit. Submit a detailed research proposal that includes a statement of need and plan for optimal use of Naval War College materials, curriculum vitae, at least two letters of recommendation, and relevant background information to Miller Naval History Fellowship Committee, Naval War College Foundation, 686 Cushing Road, Newport, R.I., 02841-1207, by 1 August 2006. For further information, contact the chair of the selection committee at john.hattendorf@nwc.navy.mil. Employees of the Naval War College or any agency of the U.S. Department of Defense are not eligible for consideration; EEO/AA regulations apply.
