NEWPORT PAPER 17

A new title in our Newport Papers series is available in print and online—The Limits of Transformation: Officer Attitudes toward the Revolution in Military Affairs, by Thomas G. Mahnken and James R. FitzSimonds, of the Naval War College faculty. Little attention has been paid, the authors find, to the views of military officers on the prospect of dramatic service transformation. The authors argue that these views are important for a number of compelling reasons. What is the level of enthusiasm among officers for transformation? How compelling do they perceive the need for transformation to be? How extensive a change do they believe necessary? How confident are they in the ability of the U.S. military to carry out transformation? To obtain copies of this Newport Paper or to receive all new titles in the series, contact the associate editor, Patricia A. Goodrich, at (401) 841-6583 or associateeditor@nwc.navy.mil.

NAVAL WAR COLLEGE FOUNDATION BOOKSTORE

Press books—see our website or call the editorial office for a complete listing—are sold in the Naval War College Foundation bookstore in Founders Hall. To order, call 848-8306 (locally), or toll-free at 1-866-490-3334. For those who would like to visit the store, military I.D. is needed to enter the complex; Foundation members, however, can arrange access by calling the Foundation staff.

ERRATUM

In the print version of our Summer 2003 issue, the first name of the reviewer of Gore Vidal's Perpetual War for Perpetual Peace is given incorrectly. The reviewer was Capt. Matthew Morgan, U.S. Army. Our apologies for the error, which has been corrected in the online version.
