

CONTENTS

	Page
SITUATION I. NEUTRAL DUTIES AND STATE CONTROL OF ENTERPRISE:
Solution:
(a)	2
(b)	$\tilde{2}$
(c)	2
Notes:
The growth of state control over the individual	2
Effect of state controls upon international law	4
Neutrality and state responsibility	6
The criterion of private capacity	9
Application of criterion to the present case	12
Visit and search of public vessels	13
The Altmark case	14
Seizure for contraband	16
Contraband lists of the 1939-40 war	17
American position concerning British "blockade"	20
The City of Flint	24
Norwegian statement on the City of Flint	26
Treatment of the United States mails	28
Capture, escort, and control by warship and airplane	35
Résumé	38
Solution:
(a)	39
(b)	39
(c)	39
SITUATION II. NEUTRALITY PROBLEMS: DISTRESS, SUBMA-RINES, AND QUALIFIED NEUTRALITY:
Solution:
(a)	42
(b)	42
(c)	42
Notes:
Vessels in distress	42
Repair of damage caused by enemy fire	44
Regulations in regard to submarines	46
Neutrality act provisions	47
Proclamation of the President November 4, 1939	48
Commercial submarines	50
Application to the present situation	50
American neutrality and Latin America	51

AND QUALIFIED NEUTRALITY—Continued. Notes—Continued. Armed merchant vessels
Armed merchant vessels
Qualified neutrality
Application to other states "involved in war"
Résumé
Solution:
(a) 57 (b) 58 (c) 58 SITUATION III. CONTIGUOUS ZONES, AIRPLANES, AND NEUTRALITY: 58 Solution: 60 (a) 60 (b) 60 (c) 60 (d) 60 (d) 60 Notes: 62 Contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United
(b) 58 (c) 58 SITUATION III. CONTIGUOUS ZONES, AIRPLANES, AND NEUTRALITY: 60 TRALITY: 60 (a) 60 (b) 60 (c) 60 (d) 60 Notes: 60 Contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama
(c) 58 SITUATION III. CONTIGUOUS ZONES, AIRPLANES, AND NEUTRALITY: 60 (a) 60 (b) 60 (c) 60 (d) 60 Notes: 60 Contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
Situation III. Contiguous Zones, Airplanes, and Neutrality: Solution:
Codes and conventions on use of American ports Solution: Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory Solution: Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory Solutions Solution Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory Solution Solution Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory Solution Codes Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory Solution Codes Codes Contiguous zones Codes Codes Contiguous zones Codes Contiguous zones Codes Cod
Solution: 60 (b) 60 (c) 60 (d) 60 Notes: 60 Contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
(a) 60 (b) 60 (c) 60 (d) 60 Notes: 60 Contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
(b) 60 (c) 60 (d) 60 Notes: 60 History of contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
(c) 60 (d) 60 Notes: Contiguous zones 60 History of contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
Notes: Contiguous zones
Contiguous zones 60 History of contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
Contiguous zones 60 History of contiguous zones 62 Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes 64 The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939 66 British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
History of contiguous zones
Contiguous zones for defense and other purposes
The declaration of Panama, October 3, 1939
British Admiralty statement on the Panama declaration 68 American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident 69 Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest 71 International law and the declaration of Panama 78 Application to the present case 80 Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident
American Republics' statement on the Graf Von Spee incident
incident
Belligerents' reply to neutrality-zone protest
International law and the declaration of Panama
Application to the present case
Neutrality of the British dominions 81 Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
Airplanes in neutral territory 85 Neutral territory as a base 87 Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports 89 President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
Neutral territory as a base
Neutrality law restrictions on use of American ports
President's proclamation, September 5, 1939 91 Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
Codes and conventions on use of neutral territory 91 United States treaty with Panama 92
United States treaty with Panama
A DAUGOTION TO THE MYSSONT ASSO
Application to the present case 95 Résumé 97
Solution:
(a) 98
(b) 98
(c) 98
(d) 98
Appendixes:
I. Neutrality Law of May 1, 1937 101
II. Neutrality Act of November 4, 1939
III. Proclamation of neutrality (General) by the President,
September 5, 1939

APPENI	DIXES—Continued.
IV.	Regulations governing the enforcement of neutrality.
v.	Proclamation (Special): Export of arms, ammunition,
	and implements of war, September 5, 1939
VI.	Regulations concerning neutrality in the Canal Zone
VII.	Regulations governing the passage of vessels through the Panama Canal
VIII.	Proclamation of a national emergency
IX.	Proclamation of a state of war under act of November
	4, 1939
X.	Proclamation defining combat area
XI.	Proclamation concerning submarines, November 4, 1939.
	(See main text of this volume, page 48.)
XII.	Regulations concerning travel on belligerent vessels
XIII.	Regulations concerning arms on American vessels
XIV.	Flights of belligerent military aircraft
XV.	Regulations concerning travel into combat areas
XVI.	Travel on belligerent vessels in the Bay of Fundy
XVII.	Proclamation defining combat area, April 10, 1940

CONTENTS

VII