The discussions upon international law were, as in recent years, conducted under the auspices of the Naval War College authorities by George Grafton Wilson, LL. D., professor of international law in Harvard University, who also drew up the notes which are published in the present volume. The discussion aimed to consider the situations from the point of view of the belligerent on the offensive, the belligerent on the defensive, and the neutral.

Criticisms of the material presented and suggestions as to topics and situations that should be discussed will be welcomed by the Naval War College.

J. R. POINSETT PRINGLE,
Rear Admiral, United States Navy,
President Naval War College.
