

International Law Studies—Volume 6

International Law Topics

The thoughts and opinions expressed are those of the authors and not necessarily of the U.S. Government, the U.S. Department of the Navy or the Naval War College.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

TOPIC I.—Use of false colors.

|  | Page |
|--|------|
| Conclusion .....                               | 7    |
| Discussion and notes .....                     | 7-20 |
| Reasons for discussion .....                   | 7    |
| False colors in land warfare .....             | 8    |
| French attitude toward use at sea .....        | 9    |
| Other opinions .....                           | 12   |
| False colors during insurrection .....         | 14   |
| Pillet's zone of control .....                 | 16   |
| Government regulation as to false colors ..... | 16   |
| Summary .....                                  | 17   |
| Conclusion .....                               | 20   |

TOPIC II.—Transfer of flag of merchant vessels during or in anticipation of war.

|   |       |
|---|-------|
| Conclusion .....                              | 21    |
| Discussion and notes .....                    | 21-45 |
| General practice as regards commerce .....    | 21    |
| Opinions of courts on transfers .....         | 22    |
| Transfer of vessels adapted for war use ..... | 25    |
| Transfers in transitu .....            | 26    |
| Methods of establishing nationality .....     | 28    |
| French regulations .....                      | 30    |
| United States regulations .....               | 31    |
| Recent English discussions .....              | 32    |
| Nationality of vessels .....                  | 41    |
| Conditions requisite to nationality .....     | 42    |
| Existing regulations .....                    | 42    |
| Summary .....                                 | 44    |
| Conclusion .....                              | 44    |

TOPIC III.—Days of grace for belligerent merchant vessels.

|   |       |
|---|-------|
| Conclusion .....                                  | 46    |
| Discussion and notes .....                        | 46-65 |
| Early opinions .....                              | 46    |
| Later practice as to persons .....                | 47    |
| Later practice as to vessels .....                | 48    |
| Days of grace in Spanish-American war .....       | 49    |
| Days of grace in Russo-Japanese war .....         | 54    |
| Treatment of vessels adapted for use in war ..... | 56    |
| Rule of Institute of International Law .....      | 59    |
| Conditions modifying restrictions .....           | 60    |
| Summary .....                                     | 61    |
| Conclusion .....                                  | 64    |

TOPIC IV.—Supplying fuel or oil to belligerent vessel in neutral port.

|   | Page. |
|---|-------|
| Conclusion .....  | 66    |
| Discussion and notes .....                                    | 66-87 |
| Early ideas of neutral obligations .....                      | 66    |
| Growing recognition of neutral obligations .....              | 67    |
| Recognition of neutral obligation in Geneva arbitration ..... | 69    |
| Proclamation in regard to use of neutral ports .....          | 72    |
| Policy and practice of Great Britain .....                    | 75    |
| Policy and practice of France .....                           | 81    |
| General drift toward restriction .....                        | 84    |
| Conclusion .....  | 87    |

TOPIC V.—Mail and passenger vessels in time of war.

|   |        |
|---|--------|
| Conclusion .....                                  | 88     |
| Discussion and notes .....                        | 88-104 |
| Classes of mail and passenger vessels .....       | 88     |
| Treatment of mail vessels .....                   | 90     |
| General conclusions as to mail vessels .....      | 95     |
| Passenger traffic and transport service .....     | 96     |
| British regulations .....                         | 98     |
| United States regulations .....                   | 99     |
| Japanese regulations .....                        | 99     |
| Penalty for transport service .....               | 99     |
| International Law Association discussion .....    | 100    |
| Rules of the Institute of International Law ..... | 103    |
| Summary .....                                     | 104    |
| Conclusion .....                                  | 104    |

TOPIC VI.—Subsidized, auxiliary, or volunteer vessels in time of war.

|                                     |         |
|-------------------------------------|---------|
| Conclusion .....                    | 105     |
| Discussion and notes .....          | 105-124 |
| General .....                       | 105     |
| Recent British discussion .....     | 107     |
| Prussian plan, 1870 .....           | 109     |
| Later plans .....                   | 113     |
| United States court decisions ..... | 115     |
| Japanese court decisions .....      | 118     |
| Method of commissioning .....       | 118     |
| Need of established character ..... | 122     |
| Summary .....                       | 123     |
| Conclusions .....                   | 124     |

APPENDIX.

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| Geneva Convention for the Amelioration of the Condition of the Wounded in Armies in the Field, July 6, 1906 ..... | 125-138 |
|---|---------|